Fall 2023

We begin our 36th season of concerts filled with immense gratitude for your support. In large part because of your generosity, we have been able to bring extraordinary performances to our community for more than three decades. It's a tremendous achievement. Thank you!

As we celebrate our return to live programs, we ask that you continue your commitment to great music, helping to ensure that this valuable part of our community life remains accessible to all. Downtown Music has continued to thrive because of our enthusiastic audience and friends.

On behalf of our Trustees, and our family of Downtown Music at Grace artists, I send heartfelt thanks and warm wishes for a year of renewal.

Best regards,

Timothy Lewis

SEPTEMBER

- 6 Helen Sung – A White Plains Jazz Festival Event
Pianist and composer, Helen Sung presents PUSH, a solo piano program that celebrates the music and artistry of landmark women in jazz. Sung, a native of Houston, Texas, set aside her classical piano upbringing after a jazz epiphany during her undergraduate studies at UT Austin. She went on to become part of the inaugural class of the Thelonious Monk Institute at the New England Conservatory of Music. Her newest album Quartet+ (Sunnyside Records) was included on DownBeat's "Best of 2021 Albums" list. In addition to her own band, Sung has performed with such luminaries as the late Clark Terry, Wayne Shorter, Ron Carter, Wynton Marsalis, Regina Carter, Terri Lyne Carrington, Cécile McLorin Salvant, and the Mingus Big Band. Sung was named a Guggenheim Fellow in 2021. A Downtown Music Debut

A partnership between ArtsWestchester, the City of White Plains and the White Plains BID, JazzFest has become a signature White Plains event presenting free and affordable jazz experiences to jazz enthusiasts from Westchester and beyond. JazzFest White Plains is made possible by Presenting Sponsor Montefiore Einstein, and additional sponsors detailed here: <https://artswestchester.org/programs/jazz-fest-2>

- 13 Sounds of the Scottish Highlands – Celebrated piper Jonathan Henken returns to Downtown Music with a program of ancient airs and dances of Scotland. This outdoor concert will take place on the church lawn. In the event of rain, the concert will be held in Grace Church.

- 20 Jeffrey Charles Palmer, countertenor and Irena Portenko, piano invite you join them on a musical voyage beginning in 19th century France with the song cycle Les nuits d'été by Hector Berlioz before sailing across the Celtic Sea to discover a beautifully curated selection of traditional Irish songs, including classic arrangements by Benjamin Britten and Hamilton Harty.

This concert is made possible, in part, with the generous support of Victor Goldsmith, PHD.

SEPTEMBER

- 27 Chamber Music with the Phil – The musicians of the Westchester Philharmonic return for one of their exciting chamber music concerts. Please consult our website DTMusic.org for program details, and learn more about the Westchester Philharmonic's season at Westchesterphil.org

This concert is made possible, in part, with the generous support of the Brian Wallach Agency, White Plains, New York. Personal and Commercial Insurance since 1949.

OCTOBER

- 4 With 26 recordings and hundreds of songs in his repertoire, Tom Chapin serves up a tasty mix of story songs, ballads, comedic and political songs, family music, sing-alongs, old-time folk classics, and a favorite song or two of his late brother Harry's. Tom accompanies himself on guitar, banjo and autoharp and is joined by longtime collaborator, Michael Mark, who plays concertina and bass.

This concert is made possible, in part, with a generous gift from Hannab and John Nelson.

- 11 Violinist Ariana Cappon has distinguished herself as a performer, collaborator, scholar and teacher. Since her solo debut at age 14, she has performed frequently in the United States, Canada, and Europe. She studied with some of the world's leading artists at Indiana University, where she earned graduate degrees in both music and mathematics. She is joined by Andrei Romanov, a New York based pianist and composer, who has given concerts and solo recitals in Russia, Finland, Kazakhstan, the United States, Israel, and Italy. Recent appearances include recitals at Symphony Space in New York, and the Tel Aviv Museum of Art Concert Hall.

This concert is made possible, in part, with generous support from the law office of Stephen Holden, Esq. White Plains, NY

- 18 The Balint/Jolles Duo Joyce Balint, mandolin, and Susan Jolles, harp, both of whom frequently appear with the Metropolitan Opera Orchestra, return to Downtown Music with a delightful program of Italian music for this unusual combination of instruments. Works of Lully, Paganini, and Calace will be featured.

This concert is made possible, in part, with a generous gift from Barbara Schwarz celebrating the contributions of Westchester County Legislator Ben Boykin to our community.

OCTOBER

- 25 Cultural icon Alma Mahler-Werfel's life intersected with some of the greatest artists of the late-19th and 20th centuries. A fascinating character, her intelligence, taste, and power (not to mention her romantic appeal) make her the subject of continuing intrigue. While her own composition career was reportedly stifled by her first husband, Gustav, Alma was entrenched in multiple artistic communities as life took her from Vienna to New York and Los Angeles. Soprano Jardena Gertler-Jaffe and pianist Erika Switzer explore her life and impact in this recital featuring works by Gustav Mahler, Berg, Schoenberg, Eisler, Britten, and Alma Mahler, herself. Jardena Gertler-Jaffe has been praised for her genuine and intelligent performances, as well as her creativity on and off the stage. She is a Britten-Pears Young Artist, and has been awarded fellowships/apprenticeships from the Association of Opera in Canada, Sarasota Opera, and Bard Summerscape. Pianist Erika Switzer performs regularly in major concert settings around the world, including at New York's Weill Hall (Carnegie), Geffen Hall, Frick Collection, Bargemusic, and at the Kennedy Center, the Philadelphia Chamber Music Society, the Spoleto Festival in Charleston. Renaud Machart of Le Monde described her as "one of the best collaborative pianists I have ever heard; her sound is deep, her interpretation intelligent, refined, and captivating."

This concert is made possible, in part, with a gift in memory of Adrienne Reilly

NOVEMBER

DECEMBER

- 13 Holiday Cabaret - It's been said that Kimberley Hawkey, "conjures vistas of the heart for an age in need of vintage, time-tested soul sustenance". We couldn't agree more, and always look forward to her concerts with Downtown Music as special events. Ms. Hawkey has won the Johnny Mercer award and is a veteran of Caramoor and Birdland. Join us for the program of holiday favorites and some new creations as well.

This concert is made possible, in part, with the generous support of 165 Café Corporation, Hudson Grille and Lilly's, White Plains.

- 20 Angelica - A visit from this wonderful chamber choir, directed by Marie Caruso, has become a seasonal tradition for our Downtown Music audience. This year, the program features medieval carols and chants of the season; rarely heard pieces by Renaissance composers Leonora d'Este and Agostino Agazzari; two strikingly different settings of Angelus ad Pastores Ait—one by Sulpitia Cesis (1619), the other by David Burks (2010), as well as appealing compositions by other contemporary composers—Oliver Tarney's The Waiting Sky, Eriks Ešēvalds's Panis Angelicus, and Mark Sirett's Christmas in Carrick.

This concert is made possible, in part, with the generous support of Elias Dagber and Dagber Engineering., PLLC.

A Brief History of Downtown Music

Thirty-six years ago, Downtown Music began with a plan for a series of concerts which would delight and inspire all who live, work, or visit in downtown White Plains. The programs were to be top flight musical offerings, presented on a regular schedule, in a way that was welcoming to all.

Today, the dream is a reality. We expect more than 4,000 people will join us for concerts in this year alone. Downtown Music has twice been voted a Best of Westchester Winner by the Editors of Westchester Magazine, and has been selected as an Arts Award Winner by ArtsWestchester. We have made a substantial investment in the cultural life of our community and, with your help, have created something truly unique and successful.

We thank you for your generosity and support.
