Thirty-Second Season
2019-2020

...a unique performing arts leader, presenting frequent, exciting & varied concerts of extraordinary music.

www.DTMusic.org
Fall 2019

We begin our thirty-second season delighted by the recognition we’ve received for bringing great music to Westchester County and to White Plains. We’ve been voted Best Live Music Venue by the Editors of Westchester Magazine, and selected as the Arts Organization of the Year by ArtsWestchester. Our 31st season introduced many wonderful musicians to our community, and several of these fine artists will return this season for special events.

No Downtown Music season would be complete without something new as well, and it’s with much excitement that we look forward to a second group of four concerts curated by celebrated radio personality Robert Sherman, as well as a series of three major programs of German music preceded by talks which place the works in historical context. These November events are made possible, in part, by a generous grant from the Reimss Fund of the Westchester Community Foundation.

Downtown Music has continued to thrive because of our enthusiastic audience and the generosity of the Friends of Downtown Music.

We take this opportunity to thank all who have made Downtown Music such a rich asset in the cultural life of Westchester County.

I look forward to seeing you at our concerts throughout the coming year.
